PATIENT

READY

About Us

Agiliti is a top manufacturer and service provider for medical and surgical equipment. We partner with clinicians to help them stay patient ready. Our team provides a range of devices and support required to safely care for patients, and we make sure essential equipment is ready and available when it's needed — from the ER to the OR. We operate locally — 24/7, nationwide — serving more than 10,000 customers who count on Agiliti to be ready for life-saving patient care.
